Description

This stunning handcrafted painting combines the beauty of ceramics with the rustic charm of wood, creating a unique piece that captures the magic of Christmas. The artwork features a poinsettia, with its intense red petals evoking the festive and cozy atmosphere of the holiday season. The handworked ceramic creates a three-dimensional effect that enhances the details of the Christmas symbol, while the wooden frame adds a natural, warm touch, making this painting perfect for decorating your living room, dining room, or even as a special gift for your Christmas celebration. Each piece is unique, crafted with care and passion by the artist Paolo May, and represents a tribute to the tradition and beauty of the holiday season. Perfect for adding an elegant and festive accent to your home, or as a gift that will bring joy and harmony to the hearts of those who receive it.

Stella di Natale
